LESSON 2. Let's read in English

Communicative area: inferring meaning from context, speaking about abilities / possibilities in the past

Active vocabulary: a grown-up, a cover, a teenager, by heart, to borrow, to return

Active grammar: could for expressing ability and possibility in the past

1. Ask and answer...

1. Do you read a lot? 2. What are your favourite books? 3. Do you ever read in English? 4. Have you read any books by Roald Dahl?

2. a.

Listen to the adapted version of an extract from Matilda by Roald Dahl. Follow in the book.

Matilda's brother was a perfectly normal boy but his sister, as I said, was different. By the age of one and a half she could speak perfectly well and she knew as many words as most grown-ups. The parents called her a noisy chatter-box and used to tell her that small girls should be seen and not heard.

By the time she was three, Matilda had taught herself to read by studying newspapers and magazines that lay around the house. At the age of four, she could read fast and well and she naturally began looking for books. The only book in the house was something called Easy Cooking. When Matilda had read it from cover to cover and had learnt all the recipes by heart, she decided she wanted something more interesting.

“Daddy”, she said, “do you think you could buy me a book?”

“A book?” he said. “What d’ you want the book for?”

“To read, Daddy.”

“What’s wrong with the telly? We’ve got a lovely telly and now you come asking for a book! You’re getting naughty, my girl!”

Nearly every weekday afternoon Matilda was left alone in the house. Her brother (5 years older than her) went to school. Her father went to work and her mother went out playing bingo in a town 8 miles away. So, Matilda could do anything she liked. On the day when her father had refused to buy her a book, Matilda set off all by herself to the public library in the village. When she arrived, she introduced herself to the librarian, Mrs Phelps. She asked if she could sit a while and read a book.

“Would you like me to help you find a nice one with lots of pictures in it?”

“No, thank you,” Matilda said. “I’m sure I can find a book myself.”

From then on, every afternoon, as soon as her mother had left for bingo, Matilda would go down to the library. The walk took her only ten minutes and then she could sit in a cozy corner for two hours reading one book after another.

“I’m wondering what to read next,” she said one day. “I’ve finished all the children’s books.”

“You mean you’ve looked at the pictures?”

“Yes, but I’ve read the books as well.”

Mrs Phelps was surprised. “Exactly how old are you, Matilda?” she asked.

“Four years and three months,” Matilda said.

“What sort of book would you like to read next?” she asked.

Matilda said, “I would like a really good one that grown-ups read. A famous one. I don’t know any names.”

“Try this,” Mrs Phelps said at last. “It’s very famous and very good. If it’s too long for you, just let me know and I’ll find something shorter and a bit easier.”

b. Which age group does Matilda belong to: babies (0–1); young children (1–7); older children (8–12); teenagers (13–19); grown-ups? What books does she read?

c.  What book do you think the librarian gave Matilda? Check your guess. Have you ever read any books by this author? Were they amusing / exciting / touching / boring / interesting?

d. Look through the underlined phrases. Guess their meaning.

3. a.  Read the sentences in bold. Answer the grammar questions.

Present: can – can’t; Past: could – couldn’t

b. Complete the sentences below. Make them true for you. Share and compare.

1. I could speak perfectly well at the age of ...
2. By the age of ... I could read fast and well.
3. When I was a little boy / girl I could / couldn’t go ... because ...

4. a.  Listen to the end of the first chapter from Matilda. What do we say to mean “to take out books from the library” and “to take books back to the library”?

b.  Listen again. Do you agree that with a good book you can stay at home and travel all over the world at the same time? Can you give examples of such books?

c. Answer the questions.

1. Who do you think reads more: teenagers or grown-ups? 2. How often do you go to a public library? 3. What books do you usually borrow? How many? 4. Do you always return books in time (early enough)? 5. Do you always read books from cover to cover? 6. Do you like learning things by heart? 7. Would you like to read Matilda by Roald Dahl? 8. There is a film made by the book. Would you like to see this film?

LESSON 3. Prodigy children

Communicative area: speaking about abilities in the past, present and future

Active vocabulary: to use, to recite (poems), an age, to be able (to do something)

Active grammar: to be able (to do something) and can / could for ability

1. What could you do when you were six? Use the expressions from the box to ask your classmate.

Example: Could you recite poems at the age of six?
– Yes, I could. / No, I couldn't.

recite poems; read; draw pictures; tell the time; use a mobile phone; play football; go shopping; swim; play a musical instrument; cook; count to a hundred; take photos; ride a bike; climb trees; use a computer; use a calculator; say the alphabet; write your own name; sing songs; get dressed without help; borrow books from a public library

2. a. Use the pictures to complete the conversation between two teenagers.

– Could you  when you were six?
I could.

– No, I couldn't. But I could  at the age of six.

– I can swim. I'd like to be able to  when I'm 18.

– So would I.

b. Listen and check. Study the grammar information in the box.

I can swim = I'm able to swim.

I could swim = I was able to swim.

... is used to speak about ability in the present and sometimes in the future.

... is used to speak about ability in the past.

For other tenses and forms we use to be able to.

c. Listen and repeat. Role-play the conversation in ex. 2a.

d. Change the information in the boxes. Role-play the conversation again.

3. a. What would you like to be able to do in the future? Choose five things. Write five sentences.

Speak French, ride a horse, climb mountains, write poems, read Matilda from cover to cover, play chess, paint pictures, build skyscrapers, play the guitar, do yoga, sing in a group, fly a plane, travel round the world, design clothes, give clever advice, write computer programmes, find a treasure, make an invention, make a long journey, to work in the government, go on a guided tour of London, stay in the most expensive hotels, settle down close to a beach, learn a long poem by heart, write books, become famous.

b.  Compare with your partner. Do you have anything in common?

4. a.  Interview your partner. Use the examples on page 237 and the questions below for help.

Can you ... recite poems in English, sing songs in English, write stories in English, drive a car, play the piano, dance the tango, speak Belarusian, use the Internet, learn other languages?

b. Who was a prodigy child? Report to the class.

A prodigy – someone with a very great ability which usually shows itself when that person is a young child.

LESSON 5. A real superman

Communicative area: reading and listening for detail

Active vocabulary: disability, disabled

1. How do you think the photos are connected?

2. a. Read the first part of a short biography. What made Christopher Reeve special?

Superman: before and after

Before: Christopher Reeve – an American actor, film director, producer, author and activist – was born in September, 1952 in New York. One of Reeve's great-grandfathers was a veteran of World War I and the first national commander of the American Legion. One of his great-great-great-grandfathers was a Mayflower passenger, another one – a younger brother of King Henry V of England. Reeve's father could speak Russian. Though Reeve was born into a rich family, he always spent summers working at the docks. At school he was a brilliant student, a great sportsman and showed a lot of talent playing in the theatre. He was very sporty: he could play soccer, baseball, tennis and hockey very well. He could speak very good French. When studying to become an actor, he started a close friendship with Robin Williams. His first Superman film was a huge success and he became a star.

Reeve lived like Superman. He had a pilot's license and flew by himself across the Atlantic twice. He took part in making a television documentary on dinosaurs because he had been interested in them since he was a child. He built a sailboat, The Sea Angel, and went sailing a lot. In 1987 he flew to Chile to help save the lives of 77 Chilean actors from the dictator Pinochet. When he was very popular, a group of children saw him in a park. They threw their Frisbee over a fence and asked him to fly after it. He said he couldn't fly because his Superman clothes were in the washer, so he just brought the Frisbee back without flying. The children were happy.

b.  Listen to the second part of his biography called After. Answer the questions.

1. How did Christopher Reeve become disabled?
2. How did he live with his disability?

 Disability – a physical or mental condition that makes it difficult for someone to use part of their body or to learn.

c. Which facts from Christopher Reeve's life surprised you most? Why do you think his biography is called Superman: before and after?

3. a. Read what Superman said. Explain the meaning of the sayings. Compare your ideas with those of your classmates.

Either you decide to stay in the shallow¹ end of the swimming-pool or you go out in the ocean.

What makes Superman a hero is not that he has power, but that he can use the power wisely².

b. Read what was said about Superman. Discuss the questions that follow.

For a lot of people, Superman is and has always been America's hero. He stands for what we believe is the best within us. He stands for what we all feel we would like to be able to stand for, when standing is hardest.

J. Michael Straczynski

¹shallow – мелкий; ²wisely – мудро

I grew up watching Superman as a child. When I first learned to dive into a swimming-pool, I wasn't diving, I was flying like Superman.

Tom Hiddleston

When I was nine, I had this girlfriend and we used to have running races in the park. I wanted to be like Superman and fly in and rescue her.

Orlando Bloom

My Dad was Superman to me and in my mind he always will be.

Artie Lange

4. a. Read one more dictionary entry. What part of speech is the word? Try to say the word and the sentence in the example. Repeat after the teacher.

regularly – adv; many times and often at the same time, for example, every week: Our English club meets regularly once a month.

b. Put the words into two groups according to the stress pattern: ■ ■ ■ ■ or ■ ■ ■.

appearance, compliment, championship, competitive, professional, badminton, businessman, interesting, vegetables, carelessness

c. Listen and repeat.

regularly (adv.): He regularly reads English books.

friendly (adv.): She is a very friendly person.

ly ≠ ly

5. a. Complete the questions with the words from this lesson.

1. Do you do your homework ... or from time to time? 2. Do you always ... the books you have borrowed from the public library in time? 3. Are your classmates ...? 4. Are you ... or ... while doing tests? 5. When you are at school, what is the most ... thing for you? 6. Could you live ... a computer? 7. Who is the most ... person in your class? 8. What are you ... without? 9. What book would you like to read ... and ...?

b.  Use the questions to ask your partner. Report the most interesting answers to the class.

LESSON 8. A test or a challenge?

Communicative area: discussing tips for doing tests

Active vocabulary: to study, a challenge, important, during, until, in case, before, after

1. Do a mini-test. Give short answers to the questions below.

1. Which of the words and phrases in bold in ex. 2 means if? 2. Which of them matches this pattern: _____

TEST

? 3. Which of them matches this pattern: TEST

- ___ ? 4. Which of them matches this pattern: TEST ?
5. Which of them matches this pattern:  TEST ?

2. Interview your partner.

to study – to learn about a subject at school or by reading books: I can't come out tonight, I have to study – there's a test tomorrow.

a challenge – smth difficult that must be done well and that tests what you're really able to do: I think the final test will be a bigger challenge than the last one.

1. Do you hate tests or do you think a test is a challenge? 2. What is your favourite type of test: multiple choice, true / false, short answers or essay (composition)? 3. How do you study before the test? 4. How do you behave during the test? 5. What do you do in case you can't answer a question? 6. Do you do the test until the last minute or do you leave some time to find and correct the mistakes? 7. What do you do after the test? 8. Are the marks you get for tests important or unimportant?

3. a. Read the tips (advice) for students. One of the recommendations is not correct. Decide which one.

How to study for tests

Before the test:

1. Find out which material the test will cover and what type of test it will be.
2. Study at a time when you are energetic and not hungry or sleepy.
3. Don't wait until the last minute! Short daily sessions are better than having a sleepless night before the test.

4. Repeat, repeat and repeat! Read and reread your notes and the most important parts of the textbook.

5. While studying, cover up your notes and retell them out loud.

During the test:

1. Read the instructions carefully. Ask the teacher if you are unsure about anything.

2. Answer the most difficult questions first.

3. Keep busy! If you can't answer a question, return to it later. The answer may come to you while you are working on another part of the test.

4. When you are doing a multiple-choice test, first decide which of the answers are absolutely wrong. Then, take a guess. Your first guess is more likely to be correct. So, you shouldn't return and change your answer later. Do it only in case you are sure it is wrong.

5. On an essay test, take a moment to plan your writing. Write down the most important things you want to write about.

6. Keep it tidy! If your teacher is not able to read your writing, you might get a bad mark.

7. Don't do unimportant things such as rewriting test questions.

8. Leave time at the end to look over your work. Did you answer every question? Did you find and correct mistakes? It is easy to make careless mistakes while taking a test.

After the test:

1. Read the teacher's comments carefully. Learn from your mistakes.

2. Keep tests. They will be useful while studying for end-of-year tests.

b.  Discuss your ideas with your partner. Then, listen and check yourselves.

c.  Which of the tips do you think are the most helpful and useful? Are there any useless tips? Discuss with your partner.

LESSON 9. English in my life

Communicative area: discussing the role of English in today's world in one's life

1. a. Listen to the poem. What is it about?

Absent or present (by Bernard Young)

Dear teacher,
my body's arrived,
it sits at a table
a pen in its hand
as if it is able to think and to act
perhaps write down the answer to the question you've asked but don't let that fool you.
My mind is elsewhere.
My thoughts far away.
So, apologies, teacher,
I'm not here today.

b. Listen to the poem again. Follow in the book. Do you ever feel like that in your English class? Is the poem optimistic or pessimistic?

c. Listen to another poem. Is it optimistic or pessimistic? What is this poem about?

by Shel Silverstein

Listen to the mustn'ts, child,
Listen to the don'ts.
Listen to the shouldn'ts,
The impossibles, the won'ts.
Listen to the never haves,
Then listen close to me –
Anything can happen, child, Anything can be.

d. Which of the poems could be Superman's favourite poem? Why? What kind of illustration would you choose for this poem?

e. When is it easier for you to understand English: while reading or while listening? Is it easier for you to speak or write in English?

2. a. Work in pairs to do the quiz.

1. What is the world's most widely spoken language:
a) Spanish; b) Mandarin Chinese; c) Russian;
d) English?

2) How many people speak English in total:
a) one out of every five people on the planet; b) one out of every ten people on the planet; c) one out of every three people on the planet?

3) What percentage Internet is in English:
a) more than 50%; b) more than 80%; c) 100%?

4) How many words does an average native speaker know:

a) between 5,000 and 8,000; b) between 8,000 and 12,000; c) between 12,000 and 20,000?

5) How many words does an average native speaker use in everyday life:

b.  Listen to the radio programme about English and check yourselves.

c. Go back to the end of your book. Count how many new words you have learnt this year. How many words have you learnt since you started learning English? Can you understand English well? Are you able to speak and write in English?

3. Read what people say about English. What do you agree with? Discuss with your partner. Share and compare with other pairs.

1. English is very difficult to learn. English grammar is terrible and English spelling is a problem for me.

2. Though English is not a very easy language, I like it a lot. It's like a challenge for me. I like the history of the UK and I also like British music. I find the lyrics of songs in the Internet and then sing along with the music.

3. English is very useful in life. It's very helpful when you travel – it makes travelling more enjoyable. You can read local newspapers and menus at restaurants. If you learn English really well, you'll be able to understand books and films in English. You'll be able to read Harry Potter or Lord of the Rings in English!!!

4. English doubles your chances in life. If you learn it, your boss will send you to an English-speaking country on a business trip and you will get more money in your job.

5. It's important to know English very well. You can use the Internet then and chat with people from other countries. And English is a world language. Everyone must know it.

6. If you learn English at school, you'll have good test results and be able to go to University.

7. English has always been my favourite subject at school. It's so enjoyable to be able to speak English with your classmates and your teacher, to listen to songs, recite poems, watch the news in English! I think, I'll learn French or German later.

4. 👤👤 Make an outline for a composition English in my life. Use your imagination and as many new words and ideas from this unit as you can.
